

Artist Statement

Alice Strack

Midland, MI

Creating is happiness for me. I like working with a wide variety of mediums; bronze being first, swinging to ink drawings, wood carvings, cement critters, portraits and anything in between.

Most creations have a touch of whimsy to give a smile for all. My style is more of a classical realism inspired from many years in Michigan.