

Artist Statement

Charles Bonham

Midland, MI

Photography is my outlet for creativity, since taking up photography in the late 1970s it has blossomed into my main focus of enjoyment. I enjoy creating photos that capture a beautiful object, vista or structure that others can relate to or find fascinating. I also like controlling all the facets of not only capturing the image with the camera but also the printing, matting and framing of the image.