

Artist Statement

Rebecca Litherland

Midland, MI

From childhood I have spent all available time either appreciating art or creating some form of it. Painting has especially brought me immeasurable pleasure in doing it, the friends I have found associated with it and the satisfaction in knowing that some of my efforts have brought pleasure to others.